Dr. Ralph Nurnberger taught at Georgetown University since 1975; he was named Professor the Year by the Graduate School of Liberal Studies in 2003 and received another award in 2005 for over 20 years of excellence in teaching. His most recent course at Georgetown was a graduate seminar on the Arab-Israeli conflict.

As the first director of "Builders for Peace", an organization established in 1993 to encourage private sector investment, Dr. Nurnberger worked closely with international leaders including Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, then - Foreign Minister Shimon Peres and PLO Chairman Yasser Arafat, as well as American and International business and political leaders. Dr. Nurnberger addressed the Jewish Historical Society last year and was extremely well received.
